Legacy of Leadership Lone Star Award

This award was established by Cynthia Bailey & Barbara Fife as 2010 Co-Presidents of CREW Fort Worth. As Co-Presidents during the CREW Fort Worth's 25th Anniversary, their focus was leadership. This prestigious award recognizes extraordinary leadership and contribution of women. The honorees must be committed to empowering women in the real estate industry, dedicated to improving the way we work, play and live within our communities, state and country. At the heart of this award is the recognition of excellence. The honorees must well represent the core values of CREW Fort Worth, CREW Network, and CREW Network Foundation. The honorees themselves serve as important role models for our membership, both seasoned and future leaders, demonstrating the limitless horizons that commitment and perseverance can achieve. The honorees must possess impeccable credentials and be a recognized leader and mentor in her field. The award can be given annually at the discretion of the Legacy of Leadership Committee and the CREW Fort Worth Board of Directors. The honoree cannot be a CREW Fort Worth Member.

2012: Betsy Price, Mayor, Fort Worth, Texas

Corporate & Civic Leadership Award

In 2012 the Legacy of Leadership Committee created its prestigious Corporate Leadership award to recognize extraordinary leadership and contributions of men. This category has since been expanded to include Civic leaders as well. The honorees must be committed to empowering women in the real estate industry, dedicated to improving the way we work, play and live within our communities, state and country. At the heart of this award is the recognition of excellence. The honorees must well represent the core values of CREW Fort Worth, CREW Network and CREW Network Foundation. The honorees themselves serve as important role models for our membership, both seasoned and future leaders, demonstrating the limitless horizons that commitment and perseverance can achieve. The honorees must possess impeccable credentials and be a recognized leader and mentor in his field. The award may be given annually, at the discretion of the Legacy of Leadership Committee and CREW Fort Worth Board of Directors. The honoree cannot be a CREW Fort Worth Member.

2013: Albon Head, Jackson Walker

Retired Awards

The Legacy of Leadership-Awards Committee Members created these two unique awards in 2012, for presentation in 2013 with a stipulation that the award designations be retired immediately following presentation to the honorees. These awards are officially retired and can never be given to a future award recipient.

Legendary Wine Connoisseur

2012: B. Early Davis of Republic Title

Early Davis was honored for being instrumental in replacing the speaker's gift of pen/pencil set to a nice bottle of wine; creating and hosting our first wine tasting event, generously sharing his private collection and educating us that wine does not have to be expensive to be good. Early Davis was recognized for many years of support, vineyard tutorials and participating in raising the bar for CREW Fort Worth.

Wine Diva Sommelier

2012 – Cynthia Bailey of WindStar Properties

Cynthia Bailey was honored for supporting our journey among the vines, she has also donated from her private stock, shared knowledge and established wine traditions. Cynthia Bailey was recognized for many years of support, vineyard tutorials and participating in raising the bar for CREW Fort Worth.
